

AVIATION

INDIAN AIRLINE COMPANIES OPERATE
22594 FLIGHTS EVERY YEAR

100 MILLION DOMESTIC PASSENGERS BY 2010

INDIAN COMPANIES ACCOUNTED FOR
HALF THE ORDER BOOKINGS FOR AIRCRAFT
AT THE 2005 PARIS AIR SHOW

BOEING'S INDIAN ORDERS OF 106 AIRCRAFT
VALUED AT US$19 billion

AIRBUS INDUSTRIE TO SELL 30 AIRCRAFT
TO INDIA'S KINGFISHER AIRLINES

PASSENGER & CARGO TRAFFIC ARE GROWING
AT A CAGR OF 14% & 13% FOR 4 YEARS

Boeing Corporation predicts that India would purchase 470 airplanes worth US$ 35 billion by 2025

It is planning a US$ 280 million investment in India

General Electric is supplying US$ 2.2 billion worth of new engines to Air India

European aerospace major EADS plans to invest US$ 2.57 billion in India over the next 15 years in various operations like production, research and development

Upgradation and modernisation of 11 international and 114 domestic airports to be completed by 2014

“No frills” airlines contributing to the surge in growth of passenger traffic in the domestic sector

“India is one of the world’s most promising markets and it is predicted that 100 million new urban middle-class consumers will become potential air travelers by 2010.”

Airbus Industrie

Success Story
KINGFISHER

Kingfisher Airlines has placed orders for five each of A380, A350, A340 and A330 aircraft with Airbus Industrie. The agreement which was signed in the presence of Indian Prime Minister Dr Manmohan Singh at Hannover in April 2006 by Kingfisher Chairman Dr Vijay Mallya marks one of the biggest deals in Indian aviation.

