

Your Brush with Excellence

At age 91, M F Husain remains India's most loved artist. A self-taught painter with multiple talents, Husain is also a film maker and writer of repute. His autobiography is considered a masterpiece of modern Hindi literature.

Indian art is regularly fetching unheard-of prices at auctions by Christie's and Sotheby's. Some estimates suggest that investments in Indian art have yielded returns of over 2000% over the past 5 years.

The increasing popularity of Indian Art is reflected in the staging of a top-of-the-drawer online show titled MasterClass by the Indian Arts Trust featuring doyens of Indian art like Anjolie Ela Menon, M F Husain and Ganesh Pyne

To know more about India, log on to www.ibef.org